day, educational conference sponsored by the American Chemical Society. It is attended by approximately 1,400 students, usually from colleges and universities throughout the United States and Canada. The official conference begins on Friday morning at 10 AM local time. The conference concludes on Sunday morning at 10 AM local time. The proceedings are generally published in the form of a single printed volume. There is also a closely related, colloquium, three-day scientific meeting sponsored by the American Chemical Society. It is held in April and October of every odd-numbered year, usually in different locations. The official colloquium is usually published in the form of a single printed volume. 5ec8ef588b
